So Albi or Isaias (are either of you available) would be best to attend with Aden. Aden- can you ask if you can skip today's fellowship meeting for this UHRC meeting?

Hey y'all...

Thanks for the meeting today. As follow-up, we're actually thinking about starting a rolling roll-out sooner rather than later (maybe even as soon as next week). Toward that end - and if y'all are interested - we'd like to get your input on what "microgrid" make most sense for CD8.

So...though I know it's last minute, can y'all please send someone to the UHRC meeting tomorrow at 1pm to give us that input? We can then put CD8 in the first round.

Again, sorry for the last minute...

Thanks,
G.
